The Events of the Resurrection Merged

The Resurrection of Jesus the Messiah!

A color-coded merging of the resurrection accounts from the four Gospels.

Matthew 28:1-10

Mark 16:1-8

Luke 24:1-12

John 20:1-10

When the Sabbath was over on the first day of the week while it was still dark just before the sun rose, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome came to the tomb bringing spices they had prepared to anoint Him. They said to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" Looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, although it was extremely large.

A severe earthquake had occurred for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and rolled away the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing, dazzling as white as snow. The guards shook for fear of him and became like dead men.

The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, and the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid for I know you are looking for Jesus the Nazarene who has been crucified. Why do you seek the living One among the dead? He is not here for He has risen just as He said. Look, here is the place where they laid Him."

When they entered the tomb, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

"Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee, saying that He must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, be crucified, and rise again the third day. Go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead; and behold, He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him just as He told you."

They remembered His words and fled from the tomb quickly with fear and great joy for trembling and astonishment had gripped them, and they reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest, to Simon Peter and the other disciple whom Jesus loved [John].

Peter and the other disciple [John] went forth and ran to the tomb. The two were running together, and the other disciple [John] ran ahead faster than Peter and came to the tomb first and, stooping and looking in, he saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. And Peter also came, following him, and entered the tomb; and he saw the linen wrappings lying there and the facecloth which had been on His head, not lying with the linen wrappings, but rolled up in a place by itself. So the other disciple [John] who had first come to the tomb then also entered, and he saw and believed. For as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise again from the dead.

So the disciples went away to their own homes, marveling at what had happened.
